

TORRANCE - The City of Opportunity

The TORRANCE HERALD Records the Industrial Progress of the Great and Growing Torrance Area

TORRANCE'S diversified industrial might is sketched editorially and pictorially in today's HERALD for your reading pleasure. One of the fastest growing communities in the nation, Torrance's record growth of industry not only secures the present but points to an exciting, even more prosperous tomorrow. Now nearly 100,000 in population and already of All America City status, Torrance is destined to become one of California's leading cities. The Herald is proud to publish this edition highlighting the firms whose faith and efforts have made this brilliant future attainable.
